

#EndPoverty

Although the world's poverty rate has drastically decreased, the conditions for third world countries have not altered much. There are people in countries that are making 3 dollars per hour after performing exhausting tasks. People are constantly starving, have no clean water, or a house to sleep in.

